5 REPORT OF RMS DELEGATED FORMAL ITEMS5.1 Gainsborough Oval / North Kiama Neighbourhood Centre
Accessible parking space

22/002LTC

Resolved that the Committee approves the conversion of two (2) existing parking spaces into a dedicated accessible parking space with adjacent maneuvering space in front of the North Kiama Neighbourhood Centre.

(Member Justin Miles and Member Darrell Clingan)

It was noted that Council may wish to undertake a broader review of other carparks that may also require dedicated accessible parking spaces.

6 GENERAL BUSINESS

6.1 Barney Street – Parking issues

SL advised that all Councillors have recently received an email from a resident, regarding parking and a request for an extension of 'no stopping' signs on Barney Street, down to the carpark, due to increased parking associated with tourists, next to the beach. MD advised that this matter has previously come to Council staff who are investigating the matter.

6.2 New Crossing at Kiama High School

NR asked about the new crossing that is being investigated on Saddleback Mountain Road, for Kiama High School. JB advised that Council has received stimulus funding from Transport for NSW for safety around schools. DB and JB have been working on where safety is needed around our schools, and advised that Council has received $100,000 per school for Kiama Primary School, Kiama High School and Gerringong Primary School, and $75,000 for Minnamurra Primary School. Reports will go to the upcoming March and April Local Traffic Committee meetings.
